African 14 & under Team at the European Tour 2 July – 9 August 2008

African Distinction

As African we can proudly announce that our tennis is going street to development and prosperity. Recently, during the European tour, the African Team conducted by the Tunisian Coach Rafik Bouchlaka and Holland Rudi Visser, our young players did excellent results. This tour preceding the World Junior Event hosted by the Czech Republic and was a good preparation for our players. The four tournaments to which our players took part were:

7 - 13 July	BNP Paribas Cup, Stade Français, Paris, France - Catégorie 1
14 - 20 July	Windmill Cup Carl Gantois, Leeuwarden, Neds - Catégorie 1
21 - 26 July	Le 13/14 des Hauts de Seine, Rueil-Malmaison, France - Catégorie 2
28 July – 2 August.	31 st Rheinenergie Tennis Cup, Cologne, Allemagne - Catégorie 1

Egyptian Karim Hossam, African 14 & under Champion 2008, realized a great achievement by winning two big European tournaments, the BNP Paribas Cup of Stade Français, and the 13/14 of Hauts de Seine, Rueil-Malmaison, France over the four tournaments played. Karim reached the semi final in single at the 31st Rheinenergie Tennis Cup, Cologne, Allemagne and the ¼ final at the Windmill Cup Carl Gantois, Leeuwarden in Hollande. He played a total of 20 matches in Single winning 18.

Following his victory at the 13/14 des Hauts de Seine, the French press commented :

The sun rises over the 13th edition of the 13-14 of the Hauts-de-Seine.

An Egyptian boy at the top of the pyramid: Karim Hossam is then the first player from Africa to win the tournament. Thanks to his impressive build and above all unfailing composure, he overcame the talented Australian player Luke Saville. That is his second victory after his achievement at the Stade Français a fortnight ago in the 1st tournament of the Young Stars circuit.

African 18 & Under Team in Morocco
Karim Mohammed Maamoun distinguished

Prince Madema, the ITF Development Officer of East Africa and Allan Cooper (KEN) have conducted the ITF 18 & under Team to a series of four Tournaments in Morocco.

The team was composed by seven players, including five from Africa: Boys, Karim Maamoun (EGY) Mbonisi Ndimande (ZIM) Duncan Mugabe (UGA) and Francis Alcantara (PHI). Girls, Emma Burgic (BIH), Chanel Simmonds and Bianca Swanepoel (RSA)

The tour kicked off with a training camp which allowed the players to acclimatise and get the feel of the courts as well. Since most of the players came from hard court background this was a chance to get used to the clay court.

Egyptian player Karim Mohammed Maamoun did very well during this tour, he has achieved five titles in four weeks: four doubles titles with his partner of the team Francis Alcantara from Philippine and won the Single of the 2nd Tournament of the Tour, the Riad 21 2008. Kamim was unlucky when he has lost successively in the finals of the 3rd Tournament “Raquette D’Or, Grade 2” against Spanish Carlos Boluda-Purkiss 26 36 and in the 4th tournament “Méditerranée 2008, Grade 1” against Portuguese player Miguel ALMEIDA 26 64 26

Following this tour Karim became African player N° 1 and won 35 places in the ranking. The CAT congratulates Karim and wishes for him all successes in the future.

ITF/CAT Southern Africa 13 & Under Circuit Pretoria – South Africa 21 June – 1 July 2008

The ITF/CAT Southern Africa 13 & Under Circuit concluded on 1st July in Pretoria, South Africa. Nine countries from the region participated, namely: Botswana, Lesotho, Madagascar, Malawi, Mauritius, Namibia, South Africa, Zambia and Zimbabwe with a total participation of 23 boys and 16 girls.

The first tournament was a SATA sanctioned junior tournament in Belgrave. This tournament gave the participating players an opportunity to test their skills against national ranked South Africans and it was also hoped that they would earn SATA Junior ranking points which would enable them to play South African tournaments in the future.

The second tournament was an ITF/CAT event, held at the University of Pretoria, with only the invited countries participating against each other. In this boys' singles event, Chevaan Davids from South Africa, the number 3 seed, beat no. 6 seed Lebelo Mosehle from Lesotho, 6-2 6-3. The girls draw, with a perfect entry of 16, saw Madagascar dominate, with Safidy Razafindrakoto beating compatriot Prisca Razafimamonjy 7-6 6-2. With the girls' win fresh in their mind, the Madagascar boys' team of Andrianjafy and Ravinson kept the ball rolling by taking the doubles title over the Zimbabwean duo of Lock and Saurombe 6-2 4-6 10-7. The Madagascan girls put their recent battle behind them, teaming up to take the girls' doubles title over the Mauritius team of Lim Ah and Wong Hong 6-2 7-6.

Karl Davies, ITF Development Officer for Southern Africa, commented, "Thanks have to be extended to the hosts, the South African Tennis Association, for their excellent hospitality. Comparing the level of play and depth with last year, it seems we are improving as a region. It was also encouraging to see the large number of entries from 12 year old players. We are looking forward to the players continuing their training and competition and seeing them at the next regional event, the Southern African Junior Championships in January 2009".

ITF/CAT 13 & Under Circuit Dar Es Salaam – Tanzania: 14 – 24 August 2008

The East Africa 13 & under circuit came to an end over the weekend of the 24th of August at the Gymkhana club, Dar Es Salaam, Tanzania. The circuit which was hosted by the Tanzania Lawn Tennis Association, kicked off with a three days training camp followed by 2 tournaments of 3 days each. The circuit attracted a total of 43 top juniors from seven countries of the East Africa region: Burundi, Ethiopia, Kenya, Rwanda, Sudan, Tanzania and Uganda.

The training camp was conducted by the ITF Development Officer for the region- Prince Madema with the assistance of the local and visiting coaches.

Brother and sister Noureldin and Samaha Adam dominated the two tournaments. The Sudanese players won the boys' and girls' singles events at both competitions and Noureldin combined with Ibrahim Shabani (TAN), runner-up in both singles finals, to secure both doubles titles too. Samaha joined forces with Gisele Umumararungu of Rwanda, who finished as runner-up in the first tournament, to take victory in the doubles at the second tournament. The doubles title at the first tournament went to Michelle Onyancha (KEN) and Samrawit Teklu (ETH) who defeated Damaris Musera and Patti Endo (KEN) 61 63.

Nour Eldin Adam (SUD)

Samaha Adam (SUD)

The closing ceremony shown the attendance of Mr. Dennis Makoi, President of the Tanzania Lawn Tennis Association and Mrs. Rachel Masamo, Deputy Director of Sports Development, who commented: "The Tanzania Tennis Association has done a fantastic job in organizing the event. I would like to thank the ITF and CAT for their financial support. Federations alone would not be able to host such events if it weren't for the support of the ITF, CAT and local sponsors."
