9th AFRICAN NATIONS' CUP (CAN 2009)
CASABLANCA – MOROCCO : 9 – 16 NOVEMBER 2008.

MOROCCO TRIUMPH

By Hichem Riani

The Kingdom of Morocco hosted the 9th African Nations's Cup for the 2nd consecutive year. After the "Union Sportive des Cheminots de Rabat", which hosted the preceding edition, the "Océan Club de Casablanca" had the honor to organize the edition of 2008 in conjunction with the " Fédération Royale Marocaine de Tennis" with the participation of 9 African Nations: Algeria, South Africa, Egypt, Ghana, Libya, Mauritania, Senegal, Tunisia and Morocco. The Moroccan Teams, Men & Women achieved for the 2nd consecutive year the Teams' Trophies of the 9th African Nations' Cup 2008.

In Men, Morocco Team composed by Mehdi Ziadi, Talal Ouahabi and Rida El Amrani defeated the Egyptian Team composed by the excellent Sherif Sabry and Karim Maamoun ; the tie was very close, they went through deciding Doubles match which allowed to the Moroccan pair composed by Mehdi Ziadi & Talal Ouahabi to beat the Egyptian pair composed by S. Sabry & K. Maamoun and to offer the title to Morocco . Preceding this match, Sherif Sabry (EGY) defeated Mehdi Ziadi (MAR) 46 61 61 and Talal Ouahabi (MAR) has defeated Karim Maamoun (EGY) in 3 sets 64 36 61. It is important to mention that the Moroccan & Egyptian Teams were qualified to play the Final after defeating successively the Tunisian and Algerian Teams by 2 matches to 0. The 3rd place came back to the Tunisian Team composed by Malek Jaziri, Oualid Jallali and Heithem Abid after defeating the Algerian team composed by Wassil Harred, Abdelhak Hamerlaine and Ahmed Waddane by 2 to 0.

In Women, the Moroccan Team composed Fatima Zahra Allami, Lamia Essaadi and Nadia Lalami has confirmed its leadership when she defeated on the Final the young Tunisians Ons Jabeur (14 years), Nour Abbes (15 years) and Sonia Daggou (15 years) by 2 to 0, Lamia Essaadi defeated Nour Abbes by 62 61 and Nadia Lalami took the best over Ons Jabeur by 64 75. The 3rd place came back to the Algerian Team composed by Essia Halou, Yasmine El Kayma and Houda Yasri after defeating the Egyptian Team composed by Nihel Saleh and Aliaa Fakhry by 2 to 0.

Mrs. Nawel El Moutawakel, Moroccan Minister of Y&S giving the Trophy to the Moroccan Women Team

At the individual event, in Men's Single, Egyptian Sherif Sabry, revelation of this CAN has achieved the title when he defeated in the Final Moroccan Mehdi Ziadi by two sets to one 76 26 62, the 3rd place was a Tunisian affair between Malek Jaziri and Oualid Jallali who obtained the 3rd place after the withdrawal of his compatriot. In the Women's Single, the title returned again to Moroccan Lamia Essaadi, after his success against her compatriot Fatima Zahra El Allami by 63 62, the 3rd place went back to Nadia Lalami (MAR) when she defeated her compatriot Lina Bennani.

In the Men's Doubles, the Egyptian pair composed by Sherif Sabry & Karim Maamoun won the title against the Tunisian pair composed by Malek Jaziri & Heithem Abid after a very close match 36 63 10-5, in the Women's Doubles, the Moroccan pair composed by Fatima Zhara El Allami & Nadia Lalami won the title after their victory against their compatriots Habiba Ifrakh and Lina Bennani 61 61.

We note finally that the 9th edition of the CAN was very well organized by the Morocco Tennis Federation and the "Oceanic Club of Casablanca" and was honoured by the attendance of Mrs the Minister of Youth and Sport of Morocco and many African personalities of tennis such as the dean of Presidents, Mr Mohamed M'jid, President of the FRMT, Mr Tarak Cherif, CAT President and all members of the CAT Executive Committee which held its meeting in Casablanca on the 14th of November 2008 and decided the organisation of the 10th edition of the African Nations' Cup – CAN 2009 in South Africa in November 2009.

Eritrea hosted its first ever ITF/OS Level 1 Coaches Course 23 – 31 October 2008

The first ever Level 1 Coaches Course in Eritrea, conducted by the ITF Development Officer for the region, Mr. Prince Madema started with a 2-day mini tennis Course on 23 & 24 October attracting 34 participants including teachers from 16 schools while the Level 1 course which was from 25 - 31 October had 19 participants. This Course covered the modern ways of teaching starter tennis players, intermediate and advanced juniors.

President of the ETF presenting Certificates

All Participants

The participants were very enthusiastic and motivated as this was the first time ever to have such an opportunity to learn something about coaching tennis. Berekete Ghetahun one of the participants commented: "I have never had an opportunity like this, whether I pass the course or fail, I am still grateful to the ITF and Olympic Solidarity for this learning experience. I will change my ways of coaching tennis".

Mr. Daniel Johannes, the newly elected President of the Eritrean Tennis Federation has commented: "Eritrea Tennis Federation will revive tennis in the country and will run it professionally".

The course ended on Friday 31 October 2008 with the presentation of the Certificates of Attendance by the President of the Eritrea National Olympic Committee. In conclusion, the President of the Eritrean Tennis Federation thanked the ITF and Olympic Solidarity for their continued support through the Coaches Education.

ITF/ OS Level I Coaches Course Zambia 7 – 15 November 2008

The Zambia ITF/OS level 1 course started with 2 days mini tennis course and followed by 7 days level one course attracting 22 participants from different towns in Zambia. The course which was conducted by the ITF development officer for East Africa Mr. Prince Madema was not the first to be held in Ndola. Four years ago the Association organized a similar course in an effort to improve the standard of coaches in Zambia.

The Course was officially closed by the Copper belt regional sports on Saturday 15 November 2008 evening during the presentation of certificate of attendance, saying that this course came at the right time as Zambia is preparing for the All African Games. He added: "I hope that coaches will use the skills they learnt to train the national team that will participate at the All African Games and many other events".

The President of the Zambia Tennis Association Mr. Knox Mbazima pronounced words of encouragements for all participants and commented: "Coaches should realize that they are the backbone of the development programs and therefore they should realize that they are equally important hence the reason to bring the course". He further thanked the ITF and the Olympic Solidarity for their continued support in the coaches' education program.

Play & Stay Seminar London – LTA 28 November – 2 December 2008

The Development & Coaching Departments of the International Tennis Federation (ITF) organized in conjunction with the LTA in the new National Tennis Centre in Roehampton the second Tennis... Play and Stay seminar with the participation of over 120 delegates coming from around 50 key Tennis Associations and representative from Regional Associations, ATP and Sony Ericsson WTA Tours, and Tennis Industry organizations.

The four-day event consisted of presentations and discussions about the ITF's campaign which is aimed at increasing participation worldwide, by improving the way starter players are introduced to the game. Play and Stay encourages coaches worldwide to use slower red, orange and green balls to ensure all starter players learn to serve, rally and score (play the game) from the first lesson.

Francesco Ricci Bitti (ITF President), Stuart Smith (LTA President) and Juan Margats (ITF Executive Vice President) all gave speeches before Dave Miley (ITF Executive Director, Development) gave an update on the campaign. Presentations and discussions followed which included: Serve, Rally, Score: from the first lesson, program case studies from Brazil, Canada, Egypt, Germany, Great Britain, Norway, Portugal and the US and Competition Formats and Scoring Systems.

Africans whose attended the Seminar

The attendance at the seminar was fantastic and the combination of presentations and discussions provided the chance for the nations involved to share best practice related to the campaign. "The feedback on Play and Stay has been very positive and I think the seminar will act as a great stimulus to help further improve our sport worldwide over the coming years", said Mr. Dave Miley ITF Executive Director of Development.
